

Abu Dhabi, Dubai + Mysterious Egypt, Nile Cruise

12 Days 10 Nights Private Tour - 2026

Twin room: US$ 2988/person | Includes attractions access, meals, and tips |

Includes two domestic flights within Egypt

Single room surcharge: US$980/person | International airfare not included

Departure date: February 2-13, 2026

Miss May from Choicest Holiday Inc. leads the tour in person

Detailed Itinerary:

|                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| D102/02Tue  | Home - DubaiTake the flight to Dubai from your original location.On the flight                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| D202/03Wed  | Arrive DubaiUpon arrival in Dubai, go through immigration and meet your professional tour guide, who will assist with transfer to your hotel and introduce local customs and travel tips.Note: Scheduled 1 airport pick-up serviceMeals on ownHotel: Asiana Grand Hotel Dubai or similar                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| D302/04Thur | DubaiMorning: Proceed to the world's tallest building — [Burj Khalifa] , rising 828 meters high. Take the elevator to the 124th floor observation deck [At The Top] to overlook the modern city and the unique skyline of skyscrapers and sea-sky scenery.Afternoon,ride the elevated monorail to visit the so-called “Eighth Wonder of the World” — [Palm Island] . It is shaped like a palm tree and composed of various luxury hotels, beach villas, and water parks, forming a “sister island” relationship with [The World Islands] . View the famous [Atlantis Hotel] from outside. Enter the world-famous seven-star [Burj Al Arab Hotel] for a 90-minute immersive tour, allowing visitors to experience its ultra-luxurious interior and learn about its glorious history while viewing one of its suites.Evening: Join the [Dubai Creek Night Cruise] , sailing for about two hours on a traditional Arabian wooden dhow to enjoy the colorful night view of both banks and listen to Arabic folk music while savoring a special buffet dinner on board. Return to the hotel after the cruise.B: Hotel breakfast / L: Chinese group meal / D: Special cruise dinnerHotel: Asiana Grand Hotel Dubai or similar |
| D402/05Fri  | Dubai - Abu Dhabi - Dubai (One way 90 minutes)Morning: After breakfast, drive past Dubai Free Trade Zone and the [World's Largest Man-Made Harbor] Jebel Ali Port, cross the famous Chain Bridge, and head to the capital [Abu Dhabi], a garden city in the desert. Enter the [Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque] , the largest in the UAE, built in memory of the late King Zayed. The mosque is decorated with tens of thousands of precious gems, crystal                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

|                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                      | chandeliers, and the world's largest handmade carpet. The entire complex is clad in Greek marble, its pure-white appearance solemn and majestic. Then make an exterior photo stop at the eight-star [Emirates Palace Hotel], whose design combines traditional Arabic royalty with Western luxury, exuding a truly regal presence. Lunch features an authentic Arabic buffet. Afternoon: After lunch, enter the [Presidential Palace] Qasr Al Watan — the national palace of Abu Dhabi and one of the most expensive presidential palaces in the world. It normally hosts foreign dignitaries; President Xi Jinping's 2018 state visit to the UAE was welcomed here. Continue to Saadiyat Island for an exterior photo stop at the [Louvre Abu Dhabi], whose architecture was designed by a Pritzker Prize-winning architect. After sightseeing, return to Dubai. B: Hotel breakfast / L: Arabic buffet / D: Chinese group meal Hotel: Asiana Grand Hotel Dubai or similar                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| D502/06Sat              | Dubai - Sharjah - Dubai Morning: After breakfast, head to the UAE's third-largest emirate, [Sharjah]. Exterior view the [Cultural Square] and [Quran Monument], both designed personally by the ruler of Sharjah. See the exterior of [Al Faisal Mosque], donated by the wealthy Faisal family. Visit the Heart of Sharjah – [Al Naboodah House and Heritage Area], a 150-year-old Arab mansion resembling a Chinese courtyard house, built from seashell limestone and coral stone. Inside are furnishings and tools once used by Arab families, illustrating traditional lifestyles. Then explore the Blue Souk [Train Head Handicraft Market], so named because its roof resembles a train engine and personally designed by the Sheikh who studied in the UK. Here you may buy fine gold jewelry, Arabian scarves, tapestries, and other handicrafts, and enjoy bargaining with local shopkeepers. Afternoon: After lunch, ride a traditional Abras [water taxi] across Dubai Creek to admire the [Iranian Village] and modern architecture on both banks, showing the transition from desert life to modern prosperity through oil wealth. Stop for photos at the [Dubai Frame], a new landmark that vividly separates the old and new city. Enter the [Miracle Garden], Dubai's largest outdoor recreation site and known as the most beautiful garden in the world, built with 45 million flowers forming colorful walls and 4 km of pathways that shine brilliantly under the sun. B: Hotel breakfast / L: Seafood Pilaf / D: Hot Pot buffet + BBQ Hotel: Asiana Grand Hotel Dubai or similar |
| D602/07Sun              | Dubai - Cairo (Airport Code : DXB- CAI) (Dubai - Cairo air ticket at own expense. Suggested flight: EK923, departs 15:00 PM) Morning: Visit the “Museum of the Future” to learn about AI, robotics, and the future of human life. After lunch, transfer guests to Dubai Airport to fly to the next destination — Cairo. Upon arrival at Cairo Airport, a local representative will meet guests and assist with visa-on-arrival procedures (US$25 per person, paid locally). Our Egyptian guide will greet guests at the airport, then transfer to the hotel after dinner for rest. Note: Scheduled 1 Dubai airport drop-off service + 1 Cairo airport pick-up service B: Hotel breakfast / L: Simple Chinese group meal (around 11:00 AM) / D: Chinese dinner Hotel: Cairo local 5* Sonesta Hotel Tower &amp; Casino Cairo or similar                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| D702/08onMon | Cairo Visit [Egyptian Museum] (tickets included), and the [Giza Pyramids and Sphinx] (tickets included). [Complimentary camel ride for photo] (available for interested guests). In the evening, enjoy a belly dance and Sufi dance dinner show aboard a Nile River cruise. Then, return to the hotel for rest. B: Hotel breakfast / L / D                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

|                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                          | Hotel: Cairo local 5* Sonesta Hotel Tower &amp; Casino Cairo or similar                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| D802/09Tue                              | Cairo - Aswan (Includes Cairo – Aswan One-way Air Ticket)Take a morning flight from Cairo to Aswan, then start sightseeing upon arrival. Visit the [High Dam] (tickets included) and the [Unfinished Obelisk] (tickets included), and pass by [Botanical Island]. Embark on a 5-star Nile River Cruise for overnight stay.Warm Reminder: If the Aswan High Dam is temporarily closed, sightseeing will be from a distance.B: Hotel breakfast / L: On Cruise / D: On CruiseHotel: Overnight on local 5-star cruise                    |
| D902/10Wed                              | Aswan - Kom Ombo - EdfuAfter breakfast, visit the [Abu Simbel Temples] and the [Temple of Hathor] (tickets included). After the visit, return to the cruise.In the afternoon, sail to Kom Ombo, visit the [Temple of Kom Ombo] (tickets included), then return to the cruise and continue sailing toward Edfu.B: On Cruise / L: On Cruise / D: On CruiseHotel: Overnight on local 5-star cruise                                                                                                                               |
| D1002/11Thur                            | Edfu - Esna - LuxorArrive in Edfu, take a horse-drawn carriage (2-4 persons per carriage, tickets included) to visit the [Temple of Edfu] (tickets included). The cruise will then pass through the [Esna Lock].In the evening, dock at Luxor and enjoy a night tour of [Luxor Temple] (tickets included).B: On Cruise / L: On Cruise / D: On CruiseHotel: Overnight on local 5-star cruise                                                                                                                                   |
| D1102/12Fri                             | Luxor - Cairo (Includes Luxor–Cairo One-way Air Ticket)Recommended Local Optional Activity on your own expense: Early morning Hot Air Balloon Ride to enjoy Luxor’s sunrise and romantic views of the Nile River. Visit [Karnak Temple] (tickets included) and the [Alabaster Carving Factory]. After sightseeing, transfer to the airport for flight to Cairo. Dinner upon arrival and then check in to the hotel.B: On Cruise / L / DHotel: Cairo local 5 Sonesta Hotel Tower &amp; Casino Cairo or similar                              |
| D1202/13SatD1302/14 | Cairo - Memphis - Cairo - Home (Airport Code: Cairo CAI)Depart from the hotel to visit [Ancient Memphis] (tickets included), [Memphis Open-Air Museum] (inside), and [Salah El-Din Citadel] (tickets included). Then visit [Papyrus Painting Factory] and [Egyptian Perfume Workshop]. After a farewell dinner, transfer to Cairo Airport to take the early morning flight on February 14, ending this wonderful journey and returning home.Note: Scheduled 1 airport drop-off serviceB: Hotel breakfast / Lunch / D: Farewell dinner |

Other Price Standards:

Attraction Access included :

Dubai Segment: Palm Island Monorail, Burj Al Arab interior tour, Night Cruise Dinner on Dubai Creek, Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, Abu Dhabi Presidential Palace, Miracle Garden, Burj Khalifa 124th Floor (non-peak hours), Museum of the Future.

Egypt Segment: Egyptian Museum, Giza Pyramids and Sphinx, High Dam, Unfinished Obelisk, Temple of Kom Ombo, Temple of Edfu (includes horse carriage), Luxor Temple, Karnak Temple, Ancient Memphis, Salah El-Din Citadel, Abu Simbel Half-Day Tour, Belly Dance & Sufi Dance Dinner Show on the Nile River Cruise.

Recommended Local Optional Activities (Voluntary Participation): A. Hot air balloon ride US$ 150/person; B. Giza Pyramids light show US$ 65/person; C. Nubian Village US$ 60/person; D. Karnak Temple Light Show US$ 75/person

Price Includes:

1. 7 nights in local 5-star standard hotel twin rooms + 3 nights aboard 5-star Nile River Cruise in Egypt;
2. Attraction access and meals as listed in the itinerary (10 breakfasts + 14 main meals + 6 cruise meals);
3. Luxury air-conditioned tour coach;
4. Domestic flights: Cairo–Aswan one-way airfare with taxes; Luxor–Cairo one-way airfare with taxes;
5. Professional Mandarin-speaking guide and tips. (English-speaking guide can be arranged for extra charge)
6. Driver and guide service: Up to 10 hours per day, including one airport pick-up and one drop-off per flight; overtime will be charged extra.

Price Does Not Include:

1. Any international airfare and taxes;
2. Visa fees (U.S. or Chinese passports are visa-exempt for Dubai; Egypt visa-on-arrival US$ 25/person);
3. Single room supplement: US$ 980/person;
4. Extra airport transfer service: US$ 110/trip;
5. Recommended Local Optional Activities (Voluntary Participation);
6. Overtime fees for driver and guide: US$ 60/hour/person × 2 people = US$ 120/hour (less than one hour counts as one full hour);
7. Personal overseas travel insurance and medical insurance;
8. All personal expenses such as porter tips and other private services;
9. Additional costs due to personal reasons, flight delays, or force majeure (e.g., war, unrest, terrorism, natural disaster, severe weather, etc.).

Terms and Conditions :

1. The entire tour is conducted in Mandarin Chinese, with no English translation provided. Non-Asian participants: price upon request.
2. For children under 11 years old not occupying a bed, please consult the hotel for breakfast charges.
3. Guests must travel with the group for the entire itinerary. If a participant leaves on the departure day or midway, for any reason, it is considered voluntary withdrawal, and no refund will be issued.
4. The itinerary includes visiting local handicrafts shops to understand local culture. By registering, guests agree to participate voluntarily and comply with the voluntary shopping policy. Any disputes regarding product quality, price, or after-sales service of purchased items are between the customer and the shop, and the travel agency bears no responsibility.
5. The tour fee does not cover unforeseen or unavoidable additional expenses, including but not limited to: personal needs, flight delays/cancellations, war or threats thereof, riots, terrorism or its threats, natural disasters, or severe weather.

6. Once confirmed, any cancellation or change initiated by the customer may incur charges according to travel regulations. If cancellation is due to national policy, legal restrictions, or force majeure, costs already incurred will be deducted and the remaining amount refunded.
7. The travel agency reserves the right to adjust the itinerary and hotels according to actual conditions. All images and data are for reference only; the final itinerary and attractions prevail. The final interpretation right belongs to the travel agency.